

Stand 10.07.2017

5.4.3.4 Formblatt / BL 4 /
Specification
Processed animal protein
55%

Product: processed animal protein 55%

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Manufacturer:                                    | Berndt GmbHHauptstraße 2-4D-85445 Oberding  |
| Animal feed:                                     | processed animal protein (PAP)  |
| Product Description:                             | The processed animal protein is a source animal protein that is derived from Slaughter products of pig, poultry and ruminants. The product is especially suitable as a starting product for the production of pet food (= single feed)."GMP + FSA secured"The product should not be used as feed for farm animals!                                |
| Information of the manufacturing process:        | The fresh by-products are visually inspected and crushed. After then, the heating, drainage, pressing and cleaning of animal fat is following. The manufacturing process is in accordance with Methode 7, Chapter 3 G., Annex IV, EC 142/2011. The critical control points shredding, temperature and dwell time are continuously collected and recorded. |
| Indications for use of Auxiliary and aggregates: | There are no auxiliaries and aggregates used  |
| Constituents:                                    | - Crude Protein $\geq 55\%$- Salmonellae spp. in 25g negative- Enterobacteriaceae KbE/g $<10$   |
| Reference value (Last output)                    | Extract of the last complete analysis:- Crude Protein 56,0 %- Crude fat (HCl) 12,7 %- ashes 30,0 %  |
| Information of the durability and Storage:       | The expiry date of processed animal protein can be extended if stored correctly. Oxidation should be prevented – low temperature, no aeration, preferably dark storage.   |
| Shelf-life:                                      | At least 3 months when properly stored.   |
| Safety Instructions:                             | Processed animal protein is non-toxic, biodegradable product - no safety precautions.   |
| Notes on critical ingredients:                   | Category 3 material is not allowed for human consumption. The transport container must be labeled accordingly: KAT3 "not for human consumption"   |